The Board shall operate without standing committees. The president may appoint temporary committees from the Board membership as may be expedient to gather information, to conduct surveys, or to perform such other tasks as may be assigned. These special committees shall be temporary and shall terminate upon the presentation of the final report to the Board or at the discretion of the president.

The work of special committees shall be confined to their specific assignments, and they have only such authority as the Board directs. They shall make their reports to the Board as a whole.
