

R 11-13-12 Severability

If any provision of this rule or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this rule.

Preston County Schools do not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, disability, and national origin in employment and in the administration of any of its educational programs and activities.

In addition to the Student Code of Conduct, students participating in activities must abide by the Code of Conduct for Athletes in Preston County Schools and sign a contract of participation.